
17-18 WebISS Template Data for New International Students Admitted to:

Business - UG Exchange

Start date(s) to be used on I-20s and DS-2019s for your program:

8/21/2017 (Discover)

International exchange students must document their ability to pay the following for:

ONE SEMESTER

11100	Living Expenses for Student Only
1003	Health Fee
12103	MUST DOCUMENT this amount, if no dependents
+ 4400	Living Expenses for First Dependent
16503	MUST DOCUMENT this amount, if one dependent*

*Add $2450 to this total for each additional dependent

$25,325 tuition and $254 activity fee are not the responsibility of the exchange student. Instead, the WashU admit letter must indicate they are covered by the exchange agreement.

FULL YEAR

22200	Living Expenses for Student Only
+ 2005	Health Fee
24205	MUST DOCUMENT this amount, if no dependents
+ 8800	Living Expenses for First Dependent
33005	MUST DOCUMENT this amount, if one dependent*

*Add $4900 to this total for each additional dependent

$50,650 tuition and $508 activity fee are not the responsibility of the exchange student. Instead, the WashU admit letter must indicate they are covered by the exchange agreement.

Initial Expense Estimates

Students living off-campus should bring sufficient traveler's checks to pay for rental and utility deposits, the first month's rent, and household furnishings. These figures below indicate the approximate range of those expenses:

First month's rent and rental deposit:	$500.00 - $2,000.00
Utility and phone deposits:	$150.00 - $300.00
Household furnishings:	$300.00 - $1800.00

Note: The budgets above cover only minimal essential expenditures. Expenses for items such as clothing, recreation and incidentals are variable, and the cost of travel outside St. Louis is not included.